

TOPFINISH GM 1010G CAT-X

The manual airspray gun WAGNER TOPFINISH GM 1010G CAT-X with its excellent ergonomics enables high-quality coating results even during long application tasks.

The WAGNER TOPFINISH GM 1010G CAT-X, available as a gravity-feed cup version, is ideal for coating applications in various market segments, such as wood, metal and transportation.

- All-position use thanks to the hermetically sealed PPS cup
- Suitable for all types of material as all wetted parts are made from stainless steel
- Excellent atomisation quality with the 12-point fluid nozzle
- Fatigue-free operation thanks to the ergonomic design and perfect balance
- High flexibility due to a wide range of nozzle sizes and air caps

High reliability

Low maintenance needed thanks to self-adjusting needle package.

Easy handling

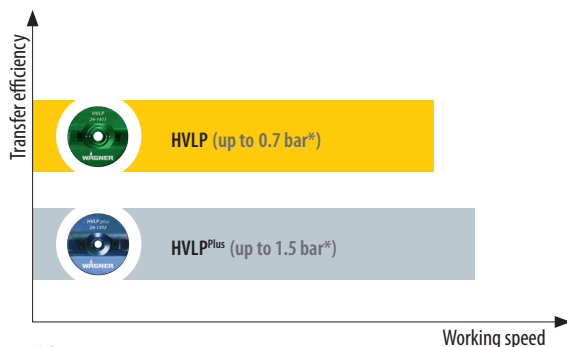

Easy positioning of the air cap without loosening the nut ring.

Flexible application

Individual adjustment of the spray pattern - from flat to round spray.

Precise material flow

Individual material flow with exact needle adjustment.

* Air cap pressure

Higher transfer efficiency with less material

- The innovative HVLPL^{plus} nozzle air cap system ensures high material savings and an excellent surface finish.
- Up to 90% of applications can be covered with only one air cap.
